KNEAD BREAD?

Whether you're looking for the perfect whole grain slice or a sweet, sinful loaf, we've found three Atlanta bakeries that are on the rise. Great Harvest Bread Co. offers a variety of fresh loaves made from scratch each morning, and has its own stone mill on site to grind flour daily. The bakery's breadboard has hot slices for sampling—our favorite was the cinnamon pecan swirl. Check out Little European Bakery for an authentic European-style treat. Breads there include 100 percent whole grain items with everything from a light whole wheat to healthy harvest grain. But for the ultimate indulgence, grab a loaf of the "Party at My Place Pumpkin Bread" from Breadwinner. Their decadent breads are available online and at Souper Jenny, Metro Fresh or Vermont Mustard Co.. They more than live up to their names. Great Harvest Bread Co., 2173 Briarcliff Road, 404.633.0769, Little European Bakery, 334 Sandy Springs Circle, 404.255.8200, Breadwinner, 404.822.9889 or www.getloafed.com.
